GFY History

George F. Young, Inc. (GFY) was founded in St. Petersburg, Florida, in 1919 by engineer and surveyor George Fleming Young. He was the first to subdivide much of Tampa, St. Petersburg, Clearwater, Sarasota, Oldsmar, St. Pete Beach, and many smaller communities in the West Central Florida area. GFY has continuously operated for over 100 years and remains an employee-owned company. GFY has become a single source for land development in educational, healthcare, institutional, municipal, and residential facilities, parks and recreation, property transition, and transportation engineering. GFY's company culture and guiding values – integrity, quality, and service have created a collaborative and dynamic environment that fosters partnership, professional growth, and fulfillment.

GFY Benefits
